Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Federal Refugee Program

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services provides funding to the International Institute of St. Louis. The International Institute partners with the department to administer grant programs with school districts with the largest number of refugee students. These school districts apply for the funding and the grants support programs designed to ensure refugee children achieve academic performance at a rate commensurate with that of the average of all children in a district. Training opportunities to refugee families and the school personnel are also provided. The funding provides culturally and linguistically appropriate materials, such as special curricula or activities, translation services, and interpreter services for identified families with school-age children. Currently, two traditional school districts (St. Louis and Kansas City) and one charter school (Kansas City International Institute) have been awarded grants.

Grow Your Own (GYO) programs recruit teachers from members of the community and work to identify potential teaching candidates as early as middle school or to recruit existing paraprofessionals, substitute teachers and career changers to become certified teachers. These programs serve to increase a state or district's local pipeline of future teachers and can support the increased diversity of the local educator workforce. This funding would create support continuing the work of the Recruitment and Retention Grants by providing competitive grants from the most effective GYO programs in school communities across the state. LEAs, community colleges, and universities would be required to regularly report the results of their GYO programs and the local funding allocated to support them.

Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Project Extended Impact

Section 2.260

The funding in this section supports Project Extended Impact (IMPACT) which extends the reach and scope of the Missouri Leadership Development System (MLDS). The primary goal of IMPACT is to increase the capacity of a critical mass of Missouri school principals (critical mass is projected to be 60 percent of principals in each of the regions of the state) to address the salient needs exacerbated by the pandemic. The MLDS staff serve principals in every region of the state providing improved learning opportunities. IMPACT would focus on three key areas: accelerated academic learning, teacher recruitment, development, and retention and student well-being.
